University of Lodz

The University of Lodz is one of the leading institutions of higher education in Poland. It was established in 1945 as a successor of educational institutions active in Lodz in earlier times. The 12 faculties of the University provide programmes in 76 fields of study and 160 specializations. In addition, the University offers doctoral programmes, more than 60 postgraduate curricula including an MBA programme, and programmes financed by the ESF. Our students, together with those studying in Lodz within exchange programmes, come from about 80 different countries. In this truly international atmosphere everyone can experience the cultural diversity of both the city and the institution.

The 38,000 students (1700 international students) that attend classes at different faculties of the University are taught by 2,226 academic teachers, 586 of whom institutions in Poland, and it especially excels in such fields of study as management, law, and economics. UL is one of only four Polish Universities which gained a place in the QS World University Rankings.

The University of Lodz boasts the oldest and most recognized School of Polish for Foreigners that has educated over 22,000 students since 1952. The School runs 1-month, 5-month and 9-month courses which prepare foreign students for future studying in Poland. It offers basic courses of Polish as well as thematic Polish language courses in history, geography, biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics and philosophy to provide prospective students with the knowledge needed in their future academic settings. After completion, the students are given right to be admitted without extra examinations to many Polish institutions of higher education.

International relations of the University are visible in various areas. Currently, within direct cooperation agreements, the school cooperates with more than 200 partner institutions from all over the world. This cooperation gives our students, the possibility of spending a semester, or a year, abroad, and, in return, we welcome many students from abroad spending a period of their studies in Lodz. The University of Lodz takes part in other exchange and research programmes such as Erasmus+, Campus Europae, Scholarship and Training Fund, Horizon 2020, Compostela Group of Universities, Erasmus Mundus.

Opportunities for the student mobility outside the EU include different universities in Latin America as well as Eastern Europe (together with the Caucasus region), via the partnership within five projects of the Erasmus Mundus Action 2: EMBER, PUEDES, EFFORT.

The University of Lodz coordinates an exchange programme called Mobility Direct which allows a tuition-free semester for students of partner institutions anywhere in the world.

University of Lodz presents the best in Europe mobile application for students! SmartUni app was awarded in Italy in 2015 for its innovative mobile application. It is designed for foreign students of the University of Lodz, as well as foreign candidates. The SmartUni App is an innovative, interactive guide for study candidates and gives you insight to all main areas of student life at the UL, including classes, staff, exchange programmes and uni events.

A perfect decision

Tawanda Chikoore, Zimbabwe: Studying at the University of Lodz is an opportunity to meet people representing a variety of cultures from all over the world. It is also very receptive to International students so I feel comfortable. The University of Lodz gives me a chance to get education on a high quality level. Now I'm convinced that I've made a perfect decision.

bear the highest academic rank. The interest in studying at the University of Lodz is determined not only by a high quality of instruction, but also by modern programmes of study offered in Polish, English or French, and adapted to the changing demands of the labour market. The University treats international cooperation as a way to foster its development and continue the city's tradition. Our institution regularly hosts guest speakers, renowned politicians, businessmen and cultural representatives from Poland and abroad. The University is repeatedly ranked among the top higher education

The University Library is one of the biggest and most modern academic libraries in Poland. At present, its total collection amounts to 3 million volumes. The University's campus offers housing in 10 dormitories situated in a beautiful green area reasonably close to the city centre, and next to most Faculty buildings.

The Campus also includes the Centre for Physical Education and Sports, which is a modern complex featuring a sports hall, swimming pool, gyms, and a health and beauty salon. Near it, you can find a medical unit, a bank, and varied shops.
