SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities

SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities, established in 1996, is the first private university in Poland with campuses in five cities, including Warsaw, Wrocław, Sopot, Poznań, and Katowice. The University has been ranked by the Ministry of Science and Higher Education as the leading higher education institution offering Social Sciences programs in Poland. The university is also renowned for its Psychology, English and Cultural Studies as well as for a unique Design Program, which combines courses in design and humanities, offered by School of Form in Poznań.

Since its inception, SWPS University has been dedicated to teaching and research. We help our students realize their full potential and prepare them to meet the demands of the contemporary world. Our researchers conduct projects that have actual impact on the lives of individuals and communities.

SWPS University is a signatory of the Magna Charta Universitatum and is a member of the Magna Charta Observatory of Fundamental Values. The University belongs to the Erasmus Student Network and it participates in several international exchange programs such as Erasmus Plus, Atlantis and Santander Universidades. Moreover, it fosters an ongoing cooperation with universities in China, Vietnam, Kazakhstan and the College of Saint Rose, Albany, NY, in the United States. Our programs attract international students from around the world, which contributes to the multicultural learning environment and exchange of diverse ideas.

SWPS University offers a variety of interdisciplinary programs, including 13 undergraduate and graduate programs in English and 30 undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral study programs, with over 70 specializations, in Polish. Additionally, students interested in improving their language competencies may enroll in non-degree English and Polish Preparatory Schools.
